

and nearby

regions.

Canberra and

nearby regions.

driven practice

in Canberra and

nearby regions.

Grant Funding Theory Of Change

 ${\bf Collaboratively\ developed\ by\ Hands\ Across\ Canberra, John\ James\ Foundation\ and\ Snow\ Foundation.}$

by 'walking

the talk'.

driven.

bodies of each

independent

foundation.

And Then Which will help ... And contribute to ... Community organisations will increase their skills. Invite community Community organisations to networks and resources. organisations apply for grants. increase their broker alternative capacity to This will help save time and resources when applying create positive funding and for grants, improve the quality of applications. in-kind support. impact. encouraging design innovation, inclusive, and and provide evidence-informed projects. It will help community opportunities for organisations receive more funding, strengthen and networking and improve projects, and become more equipped to capacity building. demonstrate their impact and build their profile. Address A thriving and We bring complex and Actasa Collaboration opportunities will be identified. Foster more highly connected together the and community organisations will submit more systemic soundboard collaboration community foundations' community for community appropriate expressions of interest. across the sector that drives resources. needs in organisations. community positive change in relationships Canherra sectorin Canberra and the This will help community organisations consult and networks and nearby Canberra and nearby regions. with each other and work together. corporate regions. nearby regions. and sector knowledge. Evaluate the We will identify trends and insights from the Grow the grant funding evaluation and grant data. breadth and model. depth of the foundations' This will help increase the understanding of impact. the sector, community needs and the impact of the model. This understanding will help raise awareness of the needs in Canberra and nearby regions. The foundations will better demonstrate their impact and improve the model, helping attract further resources for collaborative grant funding. They will apply learnings to other grant streams. We foster and The We respond We continuously We promote Our We value We respect principles to the needs improve to grow evidence-informed role model collaboration community-led the autonomy that guide of Canberra our impact in and impactcollaboration is impactinitiatives that and governing demonstrate

approach.

a consultative